

Integracare Inc.'s VP, Human Resources and Special Projects, Sandra Hyslop to Retire in July

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

(Toronto, ON) June 12, 2017 -

Integracare today announced that Sandra Hyslop, the Company's VP, Human Resources and Special Projects, has decided to retire. Ms. Hyslop's decision to retire will bring to a close a remarkable 45 year nursing career including the last 20 years with Integracare.

Ms. Hyslop has been with Integracare since 1998. In her first decade with Integracare, she served as a Senior Nursing Coordinator and as the Manager of Foot Care Services. Over the past ten years, Ms. Hyslop has been the Human Resources Manager and recently had been promoted to VP, Human Resources and Special Projects.

"Sandy has been integral in leading the Company's development and launch of our recent and successful Human Resource Recruiting and Retention Strategies. Under Sandy's guidance, we have been able to dramatically increase our hiring levels, reduce staff attrition, build relationships with key recruiting partners and expand our HR department. We are grateful for her innumerable contributions to the Company." said Lee Grunberg, President and CEO of Integracare.

"I've been privileged to work for a Company that has always truly valued both its Clients and its Employees. After two decades with the Company and the last ten years managing the Human Resources functions, I am proud of the Caregivers and Coordinators that we have hired. I am immensely proud of the great care and professionalism that they have provided our Clients and their families." said Ms. Hyslop.

In addition to her role in Human Resources, Ms. Hyslop took great pride in her care and devotion to Florence Moosengale, the Company's famous Moose. That care has resulted in Flo's fame and notoriety throughout Toronto and beyond. Ms. Hyslop will continue to care for Flo in her retirement.

"I look forward to working with Mr. Grunberg and the board during the transition period in July and to being available to management after retiring." added Ms. Hyslop

The Company will begin the search for a VP, Human Resources immediately.
